Waste Reduction & Outreach Manager
One full-time position
$74,881 - $106,353 annually
Application deadline is 5 pm, January 4, 2008
Manages the Waste Reduction & Outreach Division in the Solid Waste & Recycling Department at Metro, the regional government in Portland, Oregon. The division is responsible for meeting or exceeding state recycling goals; planning, developing, implementing and evaluating programs; supporting the department's public affairs functions; supporting the implementation of the department's strategic plan and regional solid waste management plan; and providing policy advice and analysis. Develops and administers a $5.6 million annual budget for a staff of 20.

For more information and application procedures, go to www.metro-region.org/jobs.